Course Title:  Demystifying Root coverage procedures: A microsurgical workshop on animal models (PC9)

Capacity: 20
Date: 8th November 2019
Timings: 9am – 1pm
Venue: Faculty of Dental Sciences – M.S. Ramaiah University of Applied Sciences
MSRIT Post, M S R Nagar, Bengaluru, Karnataka 560054

Course Outline: The preconference course will comprise of lecture followed by demonstrations and Hands-on exercises by participants on animal jaw model.

Lecture will cover following aspects of gingival recession and its management:
1. Pre-surgical assessment of the donor and recipient sites
2. Autogenous soft tissue graft and substitutes
3. Factors affecting the outcome of root coverage procedures
4. Selection of the surgical technique for treatment of single and multiple gingival recession
5. Postsurgical care and maintenance after root coverage procedures.

Participants will perform hands-on exercises on an animal jaw for the following surgical procedures with microsurgical principles:
1. Epithelized palatal graft (Harvesting and Suturing exercise)
2. Harvesting connective tissue graft with single incision technique
3. Coronally positioned flap with SCTG
4. Tunneling procedure with tunneling instruments

Course Fees: Rs.2000/- (PC9)

Course co-ordinator: Dr. Ashwini
9448852742